

Panel 65
Alt-Delegate Report
December 14, 2014

Good Afternoon DCM's and Officers

Welcome to Area 59 Panel 65. Get ready for another part of this wonderful service journey. DCM Orientation

When a new Panel begins the Area organizes an orientation for the incoming DCMs. As the Alt-Delegate is a part of my duties to coordinate this event, we strongly suggest that you would encourage your ADCM's to join us as well. The purpose of the DCM orientation is to help provide information, and discuss ways to help you be a more effective DCM.

I have handed out a flier with all the information listed below:

DCM orientation will held on January 04, 2014 at the, Kenhorst Fire Hall, 411 Kenhorst Blvd, Reading, Pa. 19607. Doors will open early for those Sub committees that have elected to meet before the orientation. (For driving direction please go to the area website: www.area59aa.org & click on to the DCM orientation flier.)

Delegates Conference Report (DCR) / Mini Assembly Planning Meeting

This will begin promptly Sunday afternoon following the conclusion of the DCM orientation.

Intergroups

The Delegates has assigned as another part of my duties to be the Liaison to the 12 Intergroups throughout Area 59. I have been in contact with 7 of the 12 and have attended York, Pa Intergroup meeting thus far, along with my attendance at the Combined Intergroups workshop Planning meeting held in Reading Pa. I have also scheduled dates to be in attendance at another 3 Intergroups within the next 4 weeks.

SEPIA / EPGSA Share-A-Day Annual Event

This is an annual event that take place with the cooperation of Area 59 and SEPIA traditional SEPIA will host on the odd –number years and Area 59 on the even-number years, so this year it will be SEPIA hosting the event. The following Districts are expected to participate in both planning and Share –A-Day 21,22,23,24,25,26,27,28,29,30,31,32,38,44,47,51,54,55,56,60
