

Grapevine Subcommittee 2018 March Quarterly Report

The Subcommittee Continues To:

- Maintain a current, up-to-date contact list of district GV chairpersons, as well as GVR'S from districts and groups within Area 59 and assist in keeping them informed of GV news, info and announcements.
- Provide up-to-date Grapevine/La Vina displays, literature and resources to various Area 59 and District events, including workshops, share-a-days, conventions, business meetings, etc. The GV Subcommittee participated in the SEPIA/Area 59 Share a Day event in February and continues to participate and cooperate with the Philadelphia Grapevine Committee.
- To be available for district workshops and other events to inform districts/groups of Grapevine/La Vina news/events/tools/resources/highlights, including new publications, technology/apps and projects.
- To inform members of Area 59 of the "Carry The Message Project" and how AA members can participate. This quarter, the subcommittee was informed of additional CTM gift certificate purchases made within districts of Area 59 and these subscriptions distributed to members in need.
- Encourage members/districts to get involved in various Grapevine/La Vina activities including ways to help carry the message of AA and sharing their experience, strength and hope through "our meeting in print".
