Literature:

- A new order of books was received and divided up for members. Mary Beth received Area Grapevine shade, Grapevine, and La Vina books and display items. The chair will provide these books to members when she sees members at Events, but she may not see all of them before EPGSA.
- The chair will take all books after EPGSA to inventory and prepare for the incoming subcommittee.
- The chair discussed the missing 40 books with the Treasurer. The books have not been located and the chair calculated the retail value of the books to be $495.36. Grapevine will pay Area 59 the cost of lost books. Out of their budget. Grapevine deeply apologizes for this accident.
- The chair has emailed the subcommittee new sales slips with the new Grapevine book included on the list.
- The advisor advised the committee that the Annual Report is due by October 25th to the Delegate.
- Past issues of Grapevine and La Vina Magazine will be ordered before EPGSA.

Yours in Love and Service,

Jessica T
D58 DCM
